Over KMPC
Students To Air Views On Family Education

Touching on the highly controversial issue, "Should Family Life Education be Taught in High School?" a panel of Torrance High School students will make a radio transcription at the school this noon while discussing the subject.

Headling the panel will be Donna Freidman, Gary Carter, and Betty Lou Perkins taking the negative and Elaine Rehwoldt, Glenn Boyce, and Don Mitchell speaking on the affirmative side. All are students in the public speaking class of instructor Danny Desmond.

John Baird, KMPC announcer, will narrate the program which will be broadcast over the station on Saturday, April 7, at 1:30 p.m. The program is one in a series of the Junior Town-hall Meeting of the Air.

Members of the audience, composed of the eleventh and twelfth graders, will be invited to ask questions of the panel. A portable microphone will record the questions from the audience.

John Stelabaugh, principal, will welcome the station to Torrance High School and will give a brief introduction to the program.
